FUNCTION WOULD BE HANDLING OF LEGAL MATTERS AND SALES

Proposition Submitted by Chairman Kahn of House Military Affairs Committee Fails to Receive Support of Minority Members, Which Has Three Offers Now Pending

WASHINGTON, March 4.—(By The Associated Press) A "Muscle Shoals commission" to adjust legal difficulties involved in disposition of the government's war built properties in Alabama and to direct sale or lease of the projects to private interests was made today by Chairman Kahn of the house military affairs committee but failed to receive the support of minority members of the committee which has pending before it the three offers for the properties received by the government.

Representative Fields, Kentucky, ranking minority committee man, declared congress itself would have to assume responsibility of deciding upon a plan for the development of Muscle Shoals and it was not a question to be solved by any group of cabinet officers as representatives of the executive branch of the government.

BREAKING OUT OF ICE FIELD CAUSING FEAR

Sterling and Rock Falls Citizens on Anxious Seat

STERLING, Ill., March 4.—The great field of ice between the government dam here and the head of the twelve mile gorge, which caused this week's costly flood in Dixon, started to move out late today.

The movement renewed the anxiety of the citizens of Sterling and Rock Falls, who remembered that similar conditions in 1906 drove several hundred families from their homes and destroyed the Avenue G bridge.

It was feared that the breaking up of the field of ice may permit the Great Dixon Gorge to surge down stream and add itself to a gorge eight miles between Erie and Milledale, 20 miles from Sterling.

Experienced river men make no effort to conceal their anxiety and every precaution has been taken toward residences should there be a sudden rise of water here.

At Dixon tonight the water was slowly receding and the gorges below and above the city were holding, but there was no perceptible decrease in the mass of ice piled between the banks of the stream.

STEER PLAYS HOB IN TIMES SQUARE

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 4.—A large Texas steer today turned Paddy's Market, a couple of blocks west of Times Square, into a topsy turvy scene of frightened shoppers and peddlers, overturned push carts and damaged vegetables. The steer used a young lady's red parasol as an excuse for abruptly quitting a herd on the way to an abattoir. The young lady dropped her parasol and escaped.

When the steer plunged thru Paddy's Market the air was filled with oranges, fish, shoe strings, cups and saucers, neck ties, lettuce, potatoes, shoes, bananas, newspapers and Mrs. Mary Smith. She was hurled upward when a push cart hit her.

The steer had stumbled on the push cart and before it could arise Policeman Michael Mulcahy jumped on it, grabbed its horns and subdued the animal.

LIVED TO BE 119.

Sault Ste Marie, Mich., March 4.—Mrs. John Whalen, a member of the Chippewa tribe, died in her 119th year at her home on Sugar Island near here today, within a few yards of the rude hut in which she was born in 1803. Mrs. Whalen was physically active until four or five years ago. An old clay pipe was her constant companion.

OLD ENGLAND'S POLITICAL POT SIMMERS TODAY

Indications Point to Formation of New National Party

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, March 4.—Outwardly the political crisis in England, Winston Churchill's speech at Oxford yesterday like the speeches of Austin Chamberlain and Sir Laming Worthington-Evans, was chiefly remarkable for its omission of any direct reference to Sir George Younger, leader of the conservative secessionists and apparently there is no intention among the premier's conservative colleagues to emulate Lord Birkhead in reading a public lesson to the offending conservative organizer.

Mr. Churchill's speech at Loughborough today so far as may be supposed to reflect the premier's mind clearly looked to the formation of a new national party out of the present coalition, when a political battle is joined but when this may be he gave no indication. His words conveyed what is regarded in political circles here as a seemingly a clean intimation of the early resignation of the prime minister. There are tonight some slight signs that the immediate crisis may be smoothed over temporarily.

A curious incident happened today. All the morning papers announced that the premier would hold a conference Sunday with the members of the inner cabinet at Chequers Court. This must have been communicated to the papers from some authoritative quarter but the story was today ostentatiously denied and it was announced that Lord George would spend a quiet week in Chequers Court without political guests.

No explanation has been offered but evidently there has been a sudden change in the plans.

A provincial paper published a statement to the effect that Sir George Younger had expressed regret that his recent speeches had been interpreted as a challenge to the government.

MERCHANT MARINE ASSOCIATION HOLDS ANNUAL CONVENTION

Pass Resolutions Approving Administration's Aid Policy

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 4.—Resolutions approving the policy of the administration for aiding the nation's merchant marine were adopted today by the National Merchant Marine association and presented to President Harding. The association's annual convention was brought to a close by the election of officers and the adoption of a program in the interest of shipping generally.

Senator Ransdell of Louisiana, who was re-elected president in presenting the resolutions to Mr. Harding pledged the support of the organization to the principles announced by the executive in his address to congress Tuesday. The resolutions urged the country to uphold the policy outlined for a balanced merchant marine, suggested that all established shipping routes be maintained, that all government owned ships be disposed of to private operators; disapproved of the repair or reconstruction of shipping board vessels in government owned yards, commended the shipping board for efforts to readjust the selling price of its ships and for its insistence upon a participation of American vessels in the export of American cotton.

Deplored interference.

Commissioner Chamberlain of the Shipping Board in an address deplored what he determined foreign interference with American shipping. Senator Fletcher of Florida another speaker commenting on the subsidy provision of the bill before congress declared that "ship subsidy never in all history had built up a great merchant marine."

Five vice-presidents were elected as follows: H. E. Alexander, Tacoma, Wash.; William Butterworth, Moline, Ill.; T. F. Cunningham, New Orleans; J. Parker Kirby, New York, and Charles Piez, Chicago.

To Begin Broadcasting Market Reports By Radio Monday

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 4.—The farmers behind his city brother in receiving news of the factors which determine prices of agricultural products, Robert McDugal, president of the Chicago board of trade said tonight in a statement outlining the board's plans to broadcast crop market reports by radio beginning Monday.

Great Forward Step. The radio system which will cover a territory within a radius of 500 miles of Chicago was characterized by Mr. McDugal "as the greatest forward step in two thousand years," in bringing the farmer in contact with the factors that make the price of his product.

The statement said: "The telephone and the automobile moved the farm closer to the city. They will be brought still closer by our radio telephone service. It is our belief that our half hour bulletins giving not only quotations but fundamental news of the world crop and market situation will enable the grain grower to buy or sell confidently and almost as quickly as if he were in Chicago."

Radius of 500 Miles. "The radio system will cover

DEAD IN TRAIN AND AUTO CRASH NOW SIXTEEN

Coroner and Utilities Commission to Investigate Fully

(By The Associated Press)

CLEVELAND, Ohio, March 4.—The death list in the crash at Painesville, Ohio, last night between a New York Central Express train and an automobile bus mounted to 15 late today, when Mrs. Martin Steinbeck of Fairport who sustained a fractured skull, in the collision died.

Of the four remaining injured one is expected to die, Nick Nenno, of Fairport, having a fractured skull.

At Coroner Bradley's inquest held this afternoon to fix the responsibility for the tragedy, A. W. Barnes, New York Central Railroad watchman at the crossing testified the motor bus which was struck by the "flyer" went on the tracks oblivious to the signal of a white lantern warning swung directly in its path for a full minute by him. Barnes testified that he saw the train's headlight when it was fully two miles away. He saw the bus coming down the street about two minutes before the crash he said.

May Be Prosecutions.

Criminal prosecutions may result from Coroner Bradley's inquest, county Prosecutor Ostrander, of Lake county declared when the inquest adjourned until Tuesday to wait for the testimony from two survivors of the crash now in the hospital, Andrew Adams, driver of the bus and Charles F. Sullivan, both of Painesville.

The Ohio Public Utilities commission will conduct an investigation into the collision, meeting in Painesville on Monday afternoon, railroad company officials announced.

Blame for the collision which turned Painesville and its Lake port where lived most of the victims of the crash from quiet towns to white faced communities of grief stricken inhabitants today, was laid by New York Central officials on Adams.

THE DEBUTANTE AMERICAN NAVY BOAT SCRAPPED

Keel Laid for Historic Frigate More Than Century Ago

(By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, March 4.—The charred hulk of the historic frigate "Granite State" whose keel was laid for the debutante American navy more than a century ago was towed toward the junk pile today from the spot in the Hudson where she went up in flames and down in the mud.

A bugler of the navy militia which used the frigate as a training ship during recent years sounded taps as tugs pulled her across the river. On the opposite bank the 200 tons of copper in the ship will be salvaged, and her hardwood removed and sold to coffin manufacturers.

The "Granite State" never fired a gun at an enemy nor was fired upon in her long years of service. Her weight and cumbersome line kept her out of action—so that, at least in the explanation given by those familiar with the old ship's history.

Shortly after the close of the war he was converted at a revival in a log school house and immediately entered upon his work as missionary which took him into the Indian Territory and into 26 states, many of which then were wilderness and undeveloped territories.

The body was sent to Bonaparte for interment beside that of his wife.

PROGRAM TO TAKE PACIFIC TREATIES HAS BEEN OUTLINED

Will Be Taken Up Monday in Senate—Administration Spokesman Will Open Fight For Ratification—Harding Concurs in the Plan Made to Give Treaties Precedence

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 4.—The four power Pacific treaties will be taken up Monday by the senate and discussed virtually every day thereafter until a vote on ratification is obtained, under a program said to have been agreed to at a conference today between President Harding and Senator Lodge, Republican leader.

Administration spokesmen, it was announced, will open the fight for ratification of the treaties with Senator New of Indiana, Republican member of the foreign relations commission speaking Monday and Senator Kellogg of Minnesota and other Republican committeemen on Tuesday. Senator Lodge it was said, also will speak soon and present administration arguments in support of ratification.

President Harding was said to be in complete accord with Senator Lodge's plans for proceeding with the arms conference treaty. Their conference was said to have been for the purpose of discussing procedure and to keep the president informed as to the situation, including the effect of legislative matters also before the senate.

Administrative leaders plan to give immediate, technical right to the department of Justice bill to create a number of additional federal judges but subject to debate on the four power treaty. It is not Senator Lodge's intention to force the treaties for the next few days, but soon, it was announced the administration would push them to the front.

It was stated that President Harding concurs with Senator Lodge's program of giving the four power treaty precedence over the naval, Chinese and other treaties of the arms conference.

Priority Questions.

One of the strongest arguments to be advanced by the administration forces it was learned involves the question of priority of the treaties. Friends of the four power treaty it was said were prepared to insist that opposition to the four power Pacific Measure would imperil the naval limitation agreement—that it would be treaty without ratification of the four power treaty. This point, it was said, would be based on the argument that if the power Pacific measure should be rejected, the United States could not safely consent to limitation of the American navy with the Anglo-Japanese alliance in effect and with the possibility of war in the Pacific which it is contended, the four power treaty would minimize.

It is conceded that a hard and probably long fight faces the four power measures.

NAVAL CRAFT PUT OUT OF COMMISSION TO CONSERVE FUEL

More Than Two Hundred Boats Are Now Retired

Among other vessels besides destroyers ordered out of commission today are five oil ships and one collier, two store ships, four mine layers, six mine sweepers and Eagle boats and 14 tugs and towing vessels. Two gun boats the Albany and New Orleans, now on Asiatic station duty also will be placed out of commission and sold as soon as they can be brought home. They will be replaced in Asiatic waters by the Gunboats Sacramento and Asheville.

POLICE START NEW PROBE IN TAYLOR MURDER

Letter Written From East Said to Solve Mystery

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, March 4.—Police, detectives and others engaged in trying to solve the mystery of the murder of William Taylor, motion picture director, tonight launched an investigation into the details of a letter received by Captain of Police Detectives Adams, the writer of which claimed intimate knowledge of the circumstances surrounding the slaying.

The letter, Captain Adams said bore the post mark of a Connecticut city and apparently was written by a well educated man.

"If this letter is authentic," Adams declared, "the Taylor murder is solved."

Altho the authorities refused to disclose the details of the message, it is stated the letter made some statements which fitted in closely with facts developed by the police in their investigation.

The letter was said to have stated that Taylor had been slain as the outgrowth of an old feud and that a man and woman were present at the time of the slaying.

It is said the author was leaving the country at once.

LIBEL SUIT DROPPED BY MAYOR THOMPSON

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 4.—Mayor Thompson today dropped a libel suit against John G. Oglesby, former lieutenant governor of Illinois, in which he claimed $100,000 damages.

The suit was based on alleged condemnation of Mayor Thompson's war record contained in Mr. Oglesby's campaign literature, when he was a candidate for the Republican nomination for governor against Len Small in 1920.

The mayor has similar suits pending against the Tribune, the National Security League and others who charged him with lack of patriotism.

The order for the dismissal was agreed to by David H. Jackson, representing Mayor Thompson, and Attorneys C. C. LeFors and James H. Wilkerson, representing Mr. Oglesby.

After "rain week," "canned goods week," and all the other special observances that have been proposed, some of the thrifty are urging a "home brew week."

Away down in Louisiana a suit over oil lands said to be worth $20,000,000 has been decided in favor of Lillie Taylor, a negro. The time was when such a finding would never have been made in a southern city.

Anyone who happens to read his weary way thru the three columns Tribune article about Representative Searcy's charges against the Small administration for alleged false claims of economy can hardly fail to remember having read much briefer articles that contained much more. "Verbosus" is a word that applies quite well to Mr. Searcy.

Representative Williams of this state, seems to be about the only critic in congress that Will Hays has. The congressman referred to the retiring postmaster general as the "greatest human mung-wump."

Mr. Williams must have failed to get action on some postmaster he wanted to remove.

Boy Scouts of Jacksonville, are proposing to make a survey of the city and to gather the facts about the available labor supply. Such a survey will be of very great value in determining the feasibility of locating industries here.

The Scouts have in many ways demonstrated their ability to work accurately and they can be counted upon to make this survey in the proper way. By this work they will be making a very definite contribution toward the business and industrial welfare of the city.

The compromise bonus plan seems to have very general approval and thus far no important criticism has been made. But even of more immediate importance than the bonus is the plan of the American Legion to find jobs for 700,000 ex-service men said to be out of employment.

An organized effort is to be made thruout all the states to find work for these men. It is a movement which deserves most hearty support and co-operation. With the right kind of organization, this campaign will succeed.

Isn't it a fact when you think about it, that most men value their services too highly? There are jobless men who will refuse to take positions because they do not think the salary offered is at all equal to their worth. At all honor to the fellow who is willing to take any kind of a job until the time comes when he can secure a better one.

In Quincy the three building associations have a million and a half in loans. In some other Illinois cities the associations have still larger funds invested. All of these dollars are in homes and the rule is in cities where building associations are active and prosperous that building operations are also active. What has been done in other cities can be done here in Jacksonville.

THE CONFIDENTIAL EXCHANGE

The Social Service League has recently established a Confidential Exchange in its office. This is a form of social co-operation which proves of great value in a community by preventing overlapping, confusion and interfering as well as making possible co-operative work on individual cases.

The operation of the Exchange is as follows: Each organization in the community, including church and lodge, registers a family or individual who has received aid or social service of any kind. This is done by filling out registration slips, especially provided for this purpose, placing only identifying data on the slips such as names, addresses, ages and the registering agency. When this information is turned in to the League office it is transferred to a filing card. If a case is registered by other agencies, this card will show by whom and when, so that a single glance will give the information desired. There are no other facts nor any social history recorded, and the Exchange when consulted, gives out only the name of the registering agency, further information being obtained from them.

To illustrate the practical working of the Confidential Exchange, if John Jones applies anywhere for aid, a telephone message to the Social Service League office will get the information from the Exchange files that John Jones is already registered for service by the Red Cross, Salvation Army, the League and by some church. By reference to any one of these organizations all desirable and undesirable information may be obtained. These facts are held and given as confidential by the agencies.

It is important for the effective operation of the Exchange that cases be registered and the Leagues will furnish the slips for this purpose upon application. Then, let everyone with a problem of relief or social service of any kind make use of it and it will become a valuable assistant in the community.

In contrast to a load of much better quality, sent sixty days ago to the same market, which did not bring $1,000. There is reason for the man who owns hogs to feel optimistic.

TOM MIX IN "TRAILIN'"

A Stirring Tale of Twisted Lives, from the Novel by Max Brand

The story involves a deep mystery affecting several lives, and is based on Max Brand's novel of the same name. Mix is first discovered in a drawing room with his wealthy father, and those who have never seen the Western star in a Tuxedo will be curious to see him in this picture. Later he goes to the West and is mistaken for an ordinary tenderfoot, but the folks out there soon discover their mistake. Mix shows them a few things about horsemanship and fighting.

There is plenty of gun-play, pretty horsemanship and snappy action in "Trailin'", to say nothing of a love romance in which the beautiful Eva Novak figures.

Mix here puts over another winner.

WEATHER AT TRAVERSE CITY

A letter dated Feb. 26, postmarked Traverse City, Mich., was received March 2nd, from William Walter Moore, now resident in that place.

He said, referring to the weather, "There is no telling when this letter will get to you, for there have been no trains in or out of Traverse since Wednesday (Feb. 22), and no wires working since about that time. Tuesday night we had several inches of snow, mixed with sleet; nearly all the next day there was sleet mixed with rain, and the next day was quite cold with a little more snow."

"Since then the sleet has been melting a little on the roofs and trees, but not half of it is gone. There is a hard crust all over the ground so a person can walk anywhere. I was lucky with my trees—only had one cherry tree broken, and a few branches off some of the old apple trees. As to what the sleet will do to the buds, we will know in the Spring; but I am not a great deal worried. The Traverse City papers looked queer with no telegraph news. There are no long distance phones working except to Escanaba. The crust is so hard that probably all the railroads can do is to dig out the rails with a shovel and pick—or wait for a thaw. The country roads seem all right—the mail carrier only missed one day on account of the storm, but most of the farmers seem afraid of their horses breaking thru the crust."

"The haves have finally frozen over, which is supposed to be favorable for fruit. It wasn't especially cold weather which froze them, but a succession of still days and nights. There have been some ice boats travelling around off Traverse."

In a later letter dated March 1st, Mr. Moore said: "Yours of the 21st, came yesterday. As they just opened the railroads, we doubtless have more piled up some where. x x x According to the paper, our recent sleet storm was much worse a little way south—they say orchards are lying in windrows there, and all telegraph poles down. They say the ice on wires there was 2 1/2 inches thick."

PROBLEMS THAT
CONFRONT CANADAToo Rapid Railway Development and Large War Debt Await Solution.

Cleveland, O.,—(By The Associated Press.)—Too rapid railway development and a large war debt are the main problems confronting Canada today, and a growing population will provide the solution in both cases, G. P. Towers, superintendent of Foreign Trade of the Royal Bank of Canada, Montreal, told the Bankers' Association for Foreign Trade here recently. The collection of roads known as the Canadian National Railways has some hard years ahead, Mr. Towers said, until growing population of which immigration must play an important part, gives a sound basis for operation.

Canada today was compared by Mr. Towers with the United States of 100 years ago and a reception of the remarkable growth that has taken place in this country was predicted for the Dominion. Increased mechanical facilities for development will speed Canada's progress, the bankers were told.

Unlimited natural resources, in many cases scarcely tapped were pointed to as being among the several reasons why Canada expects to make rapid strides in foreign trade. While agriculture occupies a most important place in the country's trade, Mr. Towers said, the increase of manufacturing enterprises has been marked and American concerns have been quick to take advantage of Canada's trade promise and to see the great financial possibilities of growing up with a nation still in its youth.

"As Europe gradually clears away the commercial debris of the war," he said, "conditions will become more normal, immigration will increase and Canadian business will find real prosperity in the exploitation of the country's unexcelled natural resources. The prosperity will be passed on to Canada's business friends, of whom the United States is one of the oldest."

PERUVIANS KILL
AT CERTAIN AGEAre Discovered in Fastnesses of Andes by British Scientists.

BOSTON, Mass., March 4.—High in the fastnesses of the Andes mountains of Peru there lives a race which sets an age limit and kills off all of its people who reach the fateful mark.

This is the statement of Dr. Joseph Barcroft, British scientist and author, who headed an expedition to Peru to study the effect of high altitudes on the oxygen content of the blood. The party spent practically all its time at Cerro de Pasco, a mining town of 10,000 inhabitants 14,200 feet above the sea level.

"In each village," said Dr. Barcroft, "we delivered a series of lectures at the local institute, and an official is appointed to terminate the careers of persons who live too long."

"Different communities, however, seem to have different ideas as to what limit should be placed on human existence. In some places the only duty of the executioner appears to be to secure the presence of a man at his own funeral in the 'title role.' If a person become so ill that his funeral become a certainty in the near future, a date is fixed for the same and if the leading figure shows a disposition to be unpunctual, the village executioner takes yields a great part of the world's matter in hand.

"Not far from a mine that yields a great part of the world's vanadium, there is, so we are told a settlement of 'Colos' (the name by which the natives are designated) who treat this matter on purely economic and unsentimental grounds. When one of the inhabitants becomes too old he is eaten by the community and cheerfully acquiesces in the procedure."

Dr. Barcroft is a fellow and lecturer at King's college, Cambridge University, fellow of the Royal Society and the author of a widely used text on "The Respiratory Function of the Blood."

The Andes natives studied by the party of investigators are of Indian descent, possibly from the Quichua Indians, according to one of the scientists. They live in adobe hovel and are said never to remove their clothing. The household furnishings are so meagre that the housewife puts them into a sack and carries them with her every time she goes shopping or visiting.

The natives are very shy and appear to have no diversions aside from chewing cocoa leaves, from which modern scientists extract cocaine. The extremely high altitudes at which they live seem not to affect the natives except to furnish them with a barrel like formation of the chest. They are very strong, but move slowly.

GANDHI HAS BECOME
DOMINATING FIGURESole Executive Authority of Indian National Congress.

AHMEDABAD, India.—Mohandas K. Gandhi has become a more dominating figure than ever in the Indian independence movement in consequence of the action taken in the annual session of the Indian National Congress recently held here.

Not only did the congress appoint Gandhi as its sole executive authority, as called at that time, but it authorized him to appoint his successor in the event of any emergency.

This action was taken when the congress voted to suspend all other activities in order to concentrate attention upon civil disobedience.

The resolution conferring increased powers upon Gandhi declared:

"This congress hereby appoints until further instructions, Mahatma Gandhi as the sole executive authority of the congress and invests him with the full powers of the All-India Congress Committee, including the power of convening a special session of the congress or of the All-India Congress Committee or the working committee, and also with the power to appoint a successor in an emergency."

"This congress hereby confers upon the successor and all subsequent successors appointed in turn by their predecessors all his aforesaid powers."

The Congress not only stipulated, however, that Gandhi should not be authorized to conclude terms of peace with the British or Indian governments without the previous consent of All-India Congress Committee, but it also declared that the present creed of the Congress was in no case to be altered by either Gandhi or his successors without first having obtained permission from the Indian congress.

Among those who expected to attend the celebration were Mr. and Mrs. Newton Moss and family and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Leake and family of Joy Prairie; Mrs. Nettie Long and children of Ashland; Mr. and Mrs. Farmer and family of Sinclair; Mrs. Mattie Loughary and sons Jesse and Menard of Arenzville. There will also be present a nephew of the grandchildren resident near Alexander and in various other localities, and the company will probably number forty or more.

YUKON PRODUCES
LOTS OF SILVER

Dawson, Y. T., March 4.—Yukon great silver tide is steadily rising and the Klondike continues the banner gold producing camp of the entire Northland, says a thirty-eight page special edition of the Dawson Daily News.

Silver mining has progressed at an astonishing rate in the last two years. Fifteen hundred mines, a large proportion of which are producing have been staked. The fields have been covered by companies that hold most of the big producing claims and are pushing their development. A year ago the Yukon Gold company was the only large organization engaged in quartz mining and exploration at Mayo, but since then two well known American companies have obtained control of many claims which large crews are now developing.

The most notable strike on Keno Hill was the finding of the lode on the west end, or McQueston slope. The finding of this rich mine was accidental as in the case of a great many mineral discoveries. A buckboard carrying two men skidded down a slippery embankment and turned up a piece of float which told the story. The ore assays from 200 to 500 ounces to the ton.

CHICAGO.—(By The A. P.)—Free and discount service of Methodist Episcopal Hospital aggregates $750,000 a year, L. O. Jones of Lincoln, Nebraska, field secretary of the White Cross movement, told the annual meeting of the National Methodist hospitals and Homes Association here today.

The White Cross movement was designed primarily to provide a stable annual income for support of benevolent service rendered by the 69 hospitals and 85 homes of the Methodist church, Mr. Jones said.

It is new but already has been able to provide for the care of thousands of sick and homeless, he reported.

GETS HANDCUFFS
INSTEAD OF MONEY

NEW YORK, March 4.—Donato Dallucci today went to a bank expecting to draw some money due him from an Allentown, Pa., gas company, but instead, he was awarded the silver plated handcuffs.

As he put his hand thru the cashier's window bars to get his money, he felt something snap over his wrist and looked up to see Detective Tezra of the bomb squad where he thought the cashier had been. At the door stood the "watchman" Detective Dardiz, who had directed him to the window.

Dallucci is alleged to have killed a man in Allentown in January.

BURNING RIVERS
DESTROY BRIDGESCrude Oil Leaking Into Streams
Ignited and Causes Much Damage.

SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 4.—(By The A. P.)—If the tributaries of the Sixx river to flames, it is something for the Hades fire department to worry about, but when Southern Illinois rivers start to burn and set fire to bridges the conflagration is some concern of the sovereign state of Illinois, according to W. L. Sackett, state superintendent of waterways.

Flaming rivers may fit into the scheme of things in other realms but on this side of the "great divide" especially in the oil fields of southern Illinois, they are a nuisance and a menace.

Waste crude oil which reaches streams in the oil fields from overflowed oil tanks and leaky pipe lines not only pollutes the water, kills vegetation and makes unsightly streams but also creates fire hazard of no small proportion Mr. Sackett said.

The Baltimore & Ohio railroad bridges near Lawrenceville have been destroyed by burning oil on the surface of the stream, he continued. So thick was the oil scum on the river that sparks from passing engines set it afire.

In the Waterloo oil fields waste oil on the surface of a stream resulted in the destruction of two large tanks belonging to the Ohio Oil Company and threatened a farm house when the flames were carried a quarter of a mile down the stream.

Floods carry the oil far beyond the natural channels of the stream and deposit it on the bottom lands severely damaging vegetation.

As a result of complaints from farmers along the streams the state waterways division ordered oil companies to trap their wastes in ponds from which it cannot escape into the streams.

The oil companies have followed instructions and no new oil has been reaching the streams, Mr. Sackett said, but much of the residue of former leaks and overflows, still remains in the streams and bottom lands.

In one instance waste oil which was trapped in ponds was skimmed off and used on dirt roads. Salt water which rises out of some of the oil wells constitutes another nuisance not so easily handled, Mr. Sackett said.

PLAN TO SPEND $18,500,000.

CHICAGO, Feb. 22.—A program, calling for the expenditure of $18,500,000 for new construction is planned in the budget of the Illinois Bell Telephone company for the current year, according to the annual report of the company, just made public.

The report states that in 1921 $15,645,000 was spent in Illinois in adding to the service, 35,100 telephones and equipment being installed, bringing the total of telephones owned by the company to 857,875.

The report points out that during the year the volume of telephone traffic was heavier than ever before, reaching a daily average of 3,700,000, a maximum of 4,000,000 local messages. In addition 25,000,000 toll messages were handled.

If you are thin and emaciated and wish something to help you put on flesh and increase your weight, Yeast Vitamine Tablets should be used in connection with organic Nuxated Iron. With autogenic iron, both food and Vitamines are absolutely useless as your body cannot change inert, lifeless food into living cells and tissue unless you have plenty of organic iron in your blood. Organic iron takes up oxygen from your lungs. This oxygenated organic iron unites with your digested food as it is absorbed into your blood, just as fine units with cool or sweet, and by so doing it creates tremendous power and energy. Without organic iron in your blood your food merely passes thru your body without doing you any good.

Arrangements have been made with the druggists of this city to give every reader of this paper a large $1.00 package of Genuine Yeast Vitamine Tablets absolutely free with every purchase of a bottle of Nuxated Iron.

JACKSONVILLE HIGH WINS DISTRICT TITLE

TAKE CHAMPIONSHIP GAME FROM BLUFFS BY SCORE OF 31-13

Game Was Fast and Well Played Thruout— Both Teams Tried Many Long Shots— Bluffs Was Unable to Break Thru Locals' Defense—Losers Fought Hard to the Last

In a game marked by lots of action Jacksonville High won the district basketball title from Bluffs High in David Prince gymnasium Saturday night. The final score was 31 to 13 in favor of Jacksonville.

Both teams were keyed up to a high pitch and the players were over-anxious in the early part of the game and many easy shots were missed. In fact thruout the entire game the players tried many shots from a long distance, most of which went wrong.

Jacksonville had it on Bluffs in class. Her players were larger and more experienced and the Bluffs forwards found it difficult to get by the guarding of Hunt and Arter who again played a wonderful defensive game.

In addition to playing a fine defensive game the two guards also got into the scoring. Hunt tossing two baskets and Arter one, all from near the center of the floor. After Coach Mitchell sent his entire second team in with five minutes to play the Bluffs players were able to break thru the local defense and scored several baskets.

The game was played at top speed by the teams. This caused lots of spills and the players got some hard falls but no one was hurt and time was taken out only once for each team.

At the beginning of the game the ball changed hands frequently but neither team was able to get a basket. Finally Jacksonville broke the ice and took the lead and was never headed. At the end of the first quarter the score was 9 to 2 in favor of Jacksonville.

At the half way mark it was 16 to 4, the locals seeming to slow up in the closing minutes of the half and resting on their laurels. When the second half started Jacksonville put on a little speed and soon negotiated several field baskets. At the end of the third quarter the score was 21 to 5.

Bluffs Speeds Up.

Bluffs came to life when the fourth quarter started and for a few minutes the battle raged furiously up and down the floor. However, this was to Jacksonville's liking and they showed the best form of the evening and dropped in several baskets in rapid succession.

Hunter, Goebel and Putnam did some good work thruout the game on offense. Hunt and Arter did some excellent passing and the Bluffs players found difficulty in breaking up the passes, when Jacksonville got started.

Well's team looked like a real basketball team, when they tried but apparently the men were tired from the grind of Friday and Saturday morning. After they got a comfortable lead they contented themselves with holding the advantage and playing a defensive game.

The score does not show the real difference between the teams. Had Jacksonville played as hard thruout the game and worked their passing game instead of taking long shots the score would have been much larger.

The second string men also showed well against Bluffs, the boys were plainly nervous when shoved into the fray. However, they held Bluffs well and Hopper added two points to the score with a field basket.

The Bluffs team put up a creditable battle against a much stronger five and deserve credit for the fighting spirit shown. Not for an instant did they stop fighting to break thru the local defense even tho it was almost a hopeless task.

Hyer did excellent work for Bluffs scoring all the field baskets made by his team. Bluffs was held to one field basket in the first half and Hyer made this shooting nearly the length of the floor. Rolfe, Hartnady, Knoepfel and Wills played an excellent defensive game for Bluffs and time and again broke up Jacksonville's combinations at the basket.

Officials Work Good.

The work of the officials, Brockman and Green was excellent thruout the tournament. They called fouls as they saw them and there was but little complaint on their work except from some rabid fan. Brockman officiated in the championship game and no word of complaint was heard from either team and he kept the game moving at top speed. Green also did good work and showed that he knows the game from every angle.

As a result of Jacksonville's victory she will go to the sectional tournament at Decatur. It is the first time Jacksonville has won the district tournament since 1911 when it took first honors from Pittsfield and was eliminated in the first game at the state tournament which was held in Peoria that year. Unfortunately Jacksonville drew Rockford high

I. S. D. LOSES IN OVERTIME GAME

Local Tossers Defeated By Olympians In Exciting Game—I. S. D. Plays New Berlin March 10.

(By WILLIAM JOHNSON.)

Playing their hardest game of the season last night, which went five minutes overtime, the I. S. D. tossers went down before the Olympic Americans, an independent team, from Springfield, composed of former S. H. S. players. The score at the final whistle registered 37 to 26.

From the beginning to the end the score was nip and tuck. The second half ended 19 to 17 in the Capital City team's favor.

The local tossers, who are now playing their first basket ball were excited due to the lack of experience. They were in a better shape in the Murrayville game but they lacked the importance of self-control.

During the five minutes overtime Capt. Hibralt was the individual star of the Americans, cutting two baskets from mid-floor. The five minutes were the best part of the game played.

The victory of the Americans makes a total of twelve victories for them. They have not been defeated since they started the season. Capt. Hibralt of the team stated last night that the I. S. D. team was the best they have met, and the game was the hardest they have played this season.

The I. S. D. tossers showed an improvement in their shooting last night. Their next foe will be New Berlin, to be played on the 10th of this month.

A large crowd witnessed the fray. There was great excitement displayed in every minute of the game.

MANY TRY FOR PLACES ON OKLAHOMA U. TEAM

Over Fifty Men Report for First Workout—Many Promising Candidates.

NORMAN, Okla. — (By the A. P.)—More than fifty men reported for the first official workout of the University of Oklahoma's baseball squad, and the practice period evidenced a wealth of material.

The baseball squad will be under the supervision of Elmer Ponder, a former O. U. pitcher who plans on building a strong battery as the nucleus of the varsity team. Only one member of last year's pitching staff will be on the squad this year but a number of promising men have reported for trial.

Chauncy Dolph, the veteran pitcher of last year who alternated with "Skippy" Davis in the box, will play his last season for Oklahoma this year, and is looked to as the mainstay of the Sooner pitching aggregation.

There are no veteran catchers back this year and Coach Ponder must look to the recruit material for players to stand on the scoring end. A number of candidates for the post have had high school experience.

Three of the men reporting for the outfield and infield have letters in baseball and of these, two at least will play their last year of baseball with Oklahoma. "Jap" Haskell, "Taz" March and "Tubby" Tyler have earned their letters and cannot play next year; John Hogan and Adam Seitz also play their last season this year, while Ohio Bristow has made a letter in baseball and will be eligible again next year.

HOPPE WILL TRY TO REGAIN TITLE.

This announcement was made by Charles C. Peterson, local billiardist, who accompanies Hoppe on exhibition tours.

Peterson said he would aid in conditioning Hoppe for the championship match and that a physical trainer also would be employed in putting the former champion into shape. Hoppe held the title for sixteen years.

NEW YORK, March 4.—Bulletin—Harry Frazee, owner of the Boston American League baseball club announced today that he had offered Jack Dempsey $350,000 to defend his world's heavyweight boxing championship against Harry Wills, negro heavyweight.

"Mr. Frazee said that if these matches could be arranged they would be held as preliminaries to the Dempsey-Wills contest."

No dates were mentioned.

The sum offered Dempsey for the Wills match is $350,000 more than he received for his battle with Georges Carpentier. It is the largest individual purse ever offered a fighter.

If Dempsey-Wills accept Frazee said the battle undoubtedly will be held in the east, and out of doors.

WISCONSIN NEEDS ENTIRE INFIELD

Many Veterans are Lost to This Year's Team—Have Plenty of New Men.

MADISON, WIS.,—(By the A. P.)—Graduation and ineligibility will make it necessary for Coach Guy S. Lowman, to rebuild the entire infield of the Wisconsin baseball team before it enters the 1922 western conference season. A team up to the standard of past years, but comparatively inexperienced, is expected by the Badgers.

With the loss of Davy to catch Lyman at second base, Farrington at short stop and Ruediger at third base, besides Williams, a veteran pitcher, Coach Lowman is confronted with a problem in selecting new men.

The pitching staff will be built around P. G. Paddeck, captain of the 1922 team, and star twirler of last season, P. A. Hoffman and H. O. Christanson, of the 1921 squad also will be available for mound duty with Ashley Mills a promising candidate for the bat.

L. G. Barry, substitute catcher and outfielder of last season, is expected to do the backstopping for 1922, with Edmund Aschenbrenner and J. J. Prokop substitutes.

The loss of Ruediger due to ineligibility will require that the third base position be filled by a new man. Ross E. Dugan, sophomore with high school experience is a likely candidate for the post.

At first base the team will have John Williams, regular on the 1921 squad. The second base position is in doubt, being about evenly contested by T. B. Foy and H. B. Piggett.

It is thought that A. C. Elliott, captain and outfielder on the 1921 team will be brought in to short-stop this year. Otherwise H. R. Combacker is the probable selection for the place.

Two basketball men, Rolfe Williams and Duke Cesser will be available for the outfield as soon as their playing season is completed. The third place in the field will probably be filled by a last year's freshman James Powell, or Ralph L. Sheridan.

The Badgers are to take a spring training trip this year for the first time, swinging down into Mississippi during the spring vacation in April. Three games are on the spring preparatory schedule.

Poor training weather has always handicapped the Wisconsin team, hampering practice so that the squad is relatively unprepared to enter the conference season. The spring trip will afford a means of overcoming this handicap.

Cage practice is being carried on daily with candidates for the squad training in field work. The batteries have been training since the first week in January.

WISCONSIN WON FROM MINNESOTA

MINNEAPOLIS, March 4.—Minnesota wound up its western conference basketball season here tonight by suffering its seventh consecutive defeat, losing to Wisconsin, 34 to 20. Taylor, of Wisconsin starred, scoring six field goals.

MICHIGAN TAKES FAST GAME FROM IOWA

ANN ARBOR, Mich., March 4.—Michigan went into a tie for second place in the western conference basketball championship by defeating Iowa tonight, 25 to 19.

The Wolverines overcame a 9 to 6 lead held by the Hawkeyes at the end of the first period. Michigan's game was marked by fast passing and good team play.

ST. LOUIS GOLF CLUB GETS SCOTCH PRO.

ST. LOUIS, MO.,—(By the A. P.)—Sandy Aucterlonie, Scotchborn golf professional, has been engaged as instructor at the Normandie Golf Club here. He held the same position at the Algonquin club here last year.

Aucterlonie is considered one of the best golfers in the world, playing the mashie shot and is a member of a family of Scotch golfers who have been famous in British sporting circles for years.

Before coming to America, Aucterlonie was professional at one of the famous St. Andrew courses, his fame being greater as an instructor than as a champion player. His skill is said to be so great and his control so fine in making the mashie shot that he can shoot a ball off a watch without harming the timepiece.

The Riverview Country Club, the newest of golf clubs in St. Louis, will open nine holes of its contemplated 18 hole course this spring. Construction was begun last year.

NINE RECORDS FALL AT UNIVERSITY OF ILLINOIS CARNIVAL

Four of the Records Were Made in Relay Races—H. M. Osborne of Illinois Downs Hamilton of Missouri in All Around Championship—Sets New High Total Record

CHAMPAIGN, Ill., March 4.—Nine University of Illinois relay carnival records fell tonight in a spectacular indoor track and field meet, which brought together the class of middle western universities.

Four of the new records were in relay races, the University of Pennsylvania invading the west to capture the two mile event while the other three races were distributed between Illinois, Iowa and Ames.

H. M. Osborns of Illinois grabbed one of the new carnival records when he won the all-around championship with a new high total of 5454 points after winning first place in four of the seven events and tying a fifth. Brutus Hamilton, the Olympic star from Missouri, who won the all-around for the last two years, captured second place with 5126 points.

The mile and four mile relays were the bright spots of the evening. Coach Gill's Illinois runners winning the longer race and losing by a close margin to Iowa University in the mile event.

Both races resulted in new records, the Iowa team clipping 1 2-5 seconds from the old mark of 3 minutes 29 seconds and Illinois bettering their own four mile record of 18 minutes, 25 4-5 seconds by 18 4-5 seconds.

Pyott of Chicago, took the lead in the mile relay but gave way to Schlapfizi of Illinois and Morrow, of Iowa, who passed the light on to their successors Wilson, beating out Pessenden, five yards from the finish. In the four mile event, for which the Mike Mason trophy was presented, Yates took the lead for Illinois, but McGinnis dropped the baton in the second lap and Patterson had hard work to regain the lead. Wharton, however, stepped out and distanced the field for a new record of 18 minutes, 17 seconds.

The Pennsylvania quartet took the two-mile relay from Ames in fast time.

Ames won the medley race a half mile two quarters and a mile, clipping 5 4-5 seconds from the record for a new mark of 8 minutes, 18 1-5 seconds.

RACING STAKES TO CARRY ADDED MONEY.

TOLEDO, O.,—(By the A. P.)—An innovation, in Grand Circuit racing, will be introduced at the opening meeting of the Grand Circuit at Fort Miami track here July 10 to 15, when the eight stakes to be raced at the meet will carry $10,500 added money, according to an announcement by officials of the Toledo Driving Club. While the stakes will be for the same classes as were raced here last year at the opening meeting, all of the events, except one, will carry added money, instead of purses, according to an announcement by officials of the Toledo Driving Club.

Never before has the added money plan been tried on the Grand Circuit, with the exception of the sweepstakes, but it has proved successful in the West and some parts of the East and word has been received that the local driving clubs, from some of the leading reinsmen of Grand Circuit who expressed themselves as heartily in favor of the plan, which is expected to result in more money for each race than under the old scheme of purses offered for the early closers.

Exhibition of Paintings by Great Foreign and American Artists Lent by the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, Through The American Federation of Arts. Will Soon Be on View at the Strawn Art.

That there are fashions in painting as well as in dress is shown by this exhibition. There is a wide difference obvious to all between the landscapes by Thomas Cole and the landscapes by Inness, Daubigny and Dupre and those of the latter day painters. The pictorial subjects by Gerome and by Weeks are rendered quite unlike those by our contemporary painters, contrasting sharply even to the paintings by Remington and Stevens included in the same collection.

Rice saw Venice with different eyes than Whistler or Ziem or Turner. But the difference does not indicate in one or the other lack of merit. There is always a possibility of personal performance, one may like the work of a certain painter better than that of another painter just as one has preference for the writings of a certain author. Yet those who have knowledge of art will not so measure merit. It is quite remarkable that so many schools, each with its own characteristics, should be exemplified in a small collection as this.

But the fact is that the thirty paintings lent by the great Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York, through the American Federation of Arts, were chosen with this in mind in order that those outside of New York might see a representative measure group.

Thomas Cole was an American painter, though born in England, and he painted not only saw pictures on the walls all around him in his day there were few pictures in homes and no art museums in America, but because he loved nature and longed for expression. Landscape painting was not held in high esteem at that time and was rather stilted and classical in style. Cole's ideal, and that of the painters who lived about the same time, was to copy nature as accurately as possible, not realizing that true art lies not in imitation but in interpretation.

Inness who is known as the "father of landscape painting" began in this same way but partly through the influence of the Barbizon painters and partly because of his own individuality he cast aside old traditions and was one of the first to paint interpretative landscapes.

The Barbizon school is splendidly represented in this collection by both Daubigny and Dupre. French artists who found a real romance in nature and gave it expression in their paintings. There is a poetry in their pictures which was not in the pictures of those who came before them. To this school it will be remembered belonged Corot and also Millet the great peasant painter.

Before the Barbizon school came into prominence there was what is known as the "School of 1830" to which belonged Meissonier and his pupil Detaille. Both of these men were extremely fine craftsmen, their drawing was wonderfully correct, their compositions were excellent, they had full command of their medium, they painted exquisitely, but their pictures told their whole story at a glance and partly for this reason and partly because their chief interests was subjective they have not retained their popularity to the same degree that other painters have whose works were lovelier in color and more beautiful in tone. Detaille was chiefly a painter of war scenes and his pictures had a great vogue. They are as different, however, for the war pictures of today as the wars were then from the great World War from which we have lately emerged.

Gerome, who is represented in this collection by two paintings, lived at that same time as Detaille and Meissonier and had great fame some fifty years ago. His pictures always told a story and it was this subjective interest which gave them popularity.

Rembrandt's paintings in many instances also told stories and told them well but with Rembrandt the effects of light and shadow, the proper use and relation of color values were what made the subjects worth while and this is a real art. We may look out of a window upon a beautiful view and find it very dull and uninteresting; the same landscape has not always the same charm, its beauty is largely dependent upon the play of light and the change of atmospheric conditions. This the real artist understands that it is this knowledge which goes to make the work of some painters more beautiful than that of others.

Take for example a picture of still life such as that by Volon in this collection. A big white cheese has absolutely no beauty in itself but tell commonest beauty may become beautiful through color relations and the play of light and shadow.

What so few people understand is that color in the abstract is not positive—that is that the question of color is one of relation. A blue frock will appear much bluer indoors than out and much bluer against a gray background than against a blue sky. A lovely bit of color may be completely deadened by juxtaposition with a color inharmonious in tone. This playing with color is what artists of today find so particularly attractive and it is quite true that the artists of yesterday have been outstripped in this regard.

Lovely as is the rich tonal quality of some of the works of the old masters, there is a gaiety to be found in the color schemes of some of the new masters which is unexcelled. It was the French impressionists who first opened the windows, threw back the shutters and let in the flood of sunlight which glorifies modern art. But this is not so easy that we do not find an enormous charm in the works of such painters for example as Reno who pictures a Venice very like our dreams and very like the real Venice of his day and of ours.

Alfred Stevens was a Belgian, one of the few who within the last century came to great distinction in art, and his interiors with figures are so beautifully rendered that they will always be highly prized. He painted texture and rendered detail exquisitely but he never made his figures seem like dolls and he placed them in surroundings as one would place a beautiful bit of porcelain or bouquet of flowers to add loveliness.

There are two important portraits in this collection, one of the great American author "Mark Twain" typically American and indelible humorist. This is by Charles Noel Flagg, an American painter, and is an excellent characterization.

The other is of Dr. Felix Adler of New York, founder of the society of Ethical Culture. It was painted by Douglas Volk and is considered by many one of the greatest portraits produced in this country because of its subtlety and its intense personality. A portrait such as this has much more interest than the individual could make its place in the frame, for it is, as it were, a composite interpretation of character and mood. It is furthermore an interpretation tinged with the personality of the personality of the interpreter, and therein lies the difference between such a painted portrait as this and the average photograph.

There is a curious lack of pictures of children, or rather we should say of the child, and those who have painted such can be checked off almost on the fingers on one hand. Among the foremost is Frere, an excellent example of whose art is in this collection. Before the days of the Dutch genre painters Frere painted delightful children's pictures showing them not posed for a portrait but going about their play and in their home life. He painted them as one who them and his pictures have perennial interest and charm.

UNION LABOR REJECTS PLAN.

ESSEN, Germany.—Union labor has rejected the plan proposed by the Krupp works, under which workmen were to have purchased a special issue of stock, with their savings, and were to receive certain administrative privileges, looking toward co-operative management of the plants according to the Krupp announcement.

The resolution in which the plan was rejected by the Krupp shop soviet declares that the Krupp management intended to "unload" stock on the workmen, and by creating "capitalists" among the laborers destroy the solidarity of the working classes.

The labor leaders believed participation in the management of the plants, as stock owners, could in no manner lead to better economic relations with employers, and would endanger the status of the manual laborer in relation to the "brain-workers."

Radical, socialist and labor newspapers give the Krupp firm credit for an attempt to alleviate the "social problem" by promotion of a big family of employees and employers but, nevertheless, generally approve the action of the Essen labor unions and express the hope that German labor will stand together against any "schemes to capitalize the workmen and women, or destroy their class solidarity."

COURT DAY MAY

LOSE IN KENTUCKY
Lexington, Ky.—(By The A. P.)—"Court Day," a Century old institution in Kentucky, has suffered a painful jolt here. The Circuit Court thru an abatement order has taken away from it "Chapside" a public square in the center of the business district, where farmers and traders for miles around gathered in numbers on the second Monday in each month to trade horses and to trade anything from harness to homes. And now, for the first time in more than 100 years, they are not permitted to meet in the historic old square, of late years within the sight of the town clock in the court house tower, but have been shunted to another and less desirable street. The farmers say, however, they will not submit tamely to what they regard as an invasion of their rights and indicate they will carry the case to the Kentucky Court of Appeals. The lower court said they made of it a nuisance at once unsanitary and unsightly.

THE BEGGAR'S OPERA COMING MONDAY

Classic of English Stage Recently Closed Engagement in Chicago
—Will Appear at G and Opera House.

In 1728 "The Beggar Opera" was convulsing London town with the laughter that made "Rich and Gay Rich." Two centuries later, lacking only seven years, "The Beggar's Opera" comes to us to convulse with laughter, the sixth generation of those who roared to hear Captain MacHeath prince of highmen, order the hangman to do his office rather than relieve him to be consigned to the arms of four wives awaiting for him under the grim portals of Newgate.

It was called a "lyric drama" in its day, but it was more than that—it was the inspiration of all the comic operas and all the musical comedies that have been written from that day to this; not one of which ever equalled it for wit, for satire, for the melody of its song, for the rollicking vivacity of its action, for the human nature that permeates it from prologue to "happy ending." "The Beggar Opera" is a classic of the English stage. It made John Gay immortal. It furnished one theme for Hogarth's immortal brush. It was the foster child of the genius of Pope and Swift and Arbuthnot. It was "The Beggar's Opera" that won the mob from the spell of the picky Garrick, and gave John Rich the wealth with which he made Covent Garden, the home of English pantomime.

There are some books that no gentleman's library should be without, and no education can be said to be "liberal" that does not include at least a passing acquaintance with "The Beggar's Opera."

Monday evening at the Grand we are to be given the opportunity of witnessing probably the most unique offering of the present season, when "The Beggar's Opera" will be given by the company who created the different roles in this last revival of the famous classic at the Lyric Theatre, Hammersmith, London. Seat prices range from 5c to $2.50.

BOY SCOUTS TO CANVASS RESIDENCES

Will Collect Information Next Saturday Which Will Be Given to Chamber of Commerce.

One of the most important factors in securing additional industries for Jacksonville is an accurate knowledge of the number of persons available for employment in these industries. Of almost equal importance are statistics on the housing situation always required by representatives of prospective new industries.

The Chamber of Commerce has been in need of this information for some time but the expense of employing a field force was a reason for postponement.

The idea of making such a survey was originated by one of the local scoutmasters, who having seen the need of such a canvass being made, conceived the plan of organizing the local Boy Scouts to carry it out as their civic good turn to this community.

The boys meet Monday evening at the Chamber of Commerce for final assignments and instructions from their leaders before being put on their honor to do their best.

Inasmuch as the scouts are to do this in a wholly unselfish spirit the public is asked to cooperate with willingness and courtesy. There will be no publicity involving names of persons canvassed and the desired information will require no special confidences.

Saturday morning, March 11, was selected as the time for beginning the canvass due to the fact that the boys are not in school and there are persons in most residences on Saturday morning.

TWO MEETINGS OF C. OF C. FORUM THIS MONTH

City Health Conditions and City
Plan Commission to Be Discussed at Meetings Planned By Chamber of Commerce.

Tuesday evening March 14, is the date for the next forum meeting of the Chamber of Commerce. At this time various phases of city health problems will be considered. On another date in the present month there will be a second forum meeting, when it is the intention to discuss and possibly organize a city plan commission.

At the first meeting plans will be discussed for a "clean up and paint up" week campaign sometime during the spring. Other subjects relating to sanitation and health will be considered and some definite action taken.

The committee in charge of arrangements for the second meeting have two speakers under consideration, Norman Howard West, president of the American Park Builders of Chicago, and W. F. Hardy, chairman of the Decatur City Plan commission.

The city plan movement seeks the segregation of various activities in certain sections of the city. For instance, there are residential sections, manufacturing sections and other similar divisions, the purpose being to stabilize property values and bring more uniformity in the arrangement of the city.

SPRINGFIELD MAN TO BE COMMANDER OF ILLINOIS G. A. R.

Predicted That He Will Be Elected Without Opposition at the Annual Encampment in Alton Next May—Has Been Endorsed for the Position by Many of the Illinois Posts

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., March 4.—Dr. Edward P. Bartlett, Springfield physician, probably will be unopposed for commander of the Grand Army of the Republic, department of Illinois, at the fifty sixth annual meeting of the Illinois veterans at Alton next May, friends are predicting here. Following the action of Stephenson Post, No. 30 of Springfield, numerous posts throughout the state have endorsed Dr. Bartlett, who is now department inspector.

The annual meeting of the G. A. R. will be held May 16-18. Preparations for the entertainment of the veterans of the sixties are being made under the direction of the American Legion at Alton.

Edward P. Bartlett was a student at Lake Forest, Ill., when President Lincoln called for volunteers in 1861. On September 10, 1861, young Bartlett enlisted in Company F, 8th regiment, Illinois volunteer cavalry under Captain John L. Beveridge. The young cavalryman served with the Eighth regiment under General George M. McClellan in the army of the Potomac until after the "seven days" fighting on the peninsula, when he was stricken with typhoid fever.

He was incapacitated for service and was discharged, returning to his home at Lake Forest, but on March 20, 1864, he re-enlisted, this time in Company L, 17th Illinois cavalry. In this regiment he was promoted successively to sergeant major, second lieutenant, first lieutenant and captain. He was mustered out of the service December 15, 1865, as captain of Company A.

After leaving the army Captain Bartlett entered the St. Louis Medical college and in 1870 graduated as a physician and surgeon. He then entered Bellevue hospital medical college in New York and graduated in 1875. Dr. Bartlett located in Springfield in 1882 and has since practiced here.

For a short time after the war Captain Bartlett was sent to the Indian country in western Kansas and eastern Colorado and was in several engagements with Indian bands in the bend of the Arkansas.

In reminiscence today, Dr. Bartlett referred to President Lincoln's admonition of General McClellan for the latter's alleged procrastination, while commanding the army of the Potomac.

"McClellan was a great organizer," he said, "and had been as good a leader the war might have ended sooner. Lincoln had too long a head for the general. When we were in sight of Richmond we probably could have gone on in. We had two thousand men in Libby prison at the time. But, if the war had ended then the question of slavery might not have been settled so soon."

Dr. Bartlett is a past commander of Stephenson post and a former trustee and medical director of the Illinois department.

When the world war came he offered his services to the government and although too old for active army service, was accepted as a medical examiner. He is also former pension agent and for years was active in obtaining pensions for his comrades and their widows.

The Illinois department of the Grand Army of the Republic, contained 6,868 members at the last census last December. There were 226 posts in the state.

William P. Wright of Chicago, is the retiring department commander.

TELLS HOW ROADS COULD SAVE COAL

(Cleveland, O.—(By The A. P.)—Application of sound engineering principles to its consumption would result in the saving of approximately 150,000,000 tons of coal annually, Dr. R. H. Fernald, director of the department of mechanical engineering of the University of Pennsylvania, told members of the Cleveland Engineering Society.

Of 144,000,000 tons used by steam railroads in 1920 only 65,000,000 were used in producing steam, he said. The remainder was wasted and might have been saved by electrification of the railroads.

The world's supply will last about fifty or sixty years at the present rate of consumption, he continued, while the world's petroleum supply at the rate it is being consumed will last only fifteen years.

From 20 to 25 per cent of the petroleum production goes into gasoline of which 108,000,000 barrels were used to operate the 7,800,000 passenger cars and 1,000,000 trucks in this country in 1920.

As it grows scarcer, petroleum will have to be conserved for the most essential needs, he continued. He put lubrication first, then the navy's requirements, next the merchant marine and lastly motor vehicles.

POLICE CAPTAIN SAYS WORLD GETTING BETTER

Believes That Vice and Crime
Are on the Wane—Has Made
Study of Sociology.

Kansas City, Mo., — By The Associated Press.—Captain Robert E. Lee James in active charge of the police department here, has been a policeman for thirty years, and believes the world is growing better and that crime and vice are on the wane.

"I have known a great many crooks," he says, "and served under one or two when they happened to be police commissioners, but the world isn't made up of crooks. I have made it a rule for many years to help a man whenever I can rather than strive to get into a court room. I like to think I have helped some boys go straight who were on the way toward becoming crooks. I was never prouder than when a judge, in bringing me to a public gathering, said I had kept more men out of his court than I had sent in there."

Captain James has made a study of sociology, belongs to many organizations whose object is crime prevention, and knows the effects of vice and crime living upon the "innocent bystanders"—women and children.

"I walked a beat for thirteen years," he said recently, "and never heard of sociology in those days. But I did learn to know people. It took me a while to realize that the reason there are laws and policemen to enforce them is because society—people everywhere—have to protect themselves not only from the immediate acts of criminals but from the insidious effects of crime and vice upon the community. In enforcing laws and stamping out bad conditions, we are trying to make our cities better places for our children to grow up in."

"I am a policeman for two reasons. One—is to make a living for myself and my family. The other is that I believe I am helping in a modest way to make the world a better place to live in."

REDUCTION MADE IN BUDGET EXPENSES

Agricultural Association Cut
$100,000—Plan to Put Aside Reserve Fund.

CHICAGO, Mar. 3.—A reduction of $100,000 in budgeted expenses of the Illinois Agricultural association for 1922 has been announced to county farm bureaus of the state by the state organization. This reduction, the statement explained, was possible through the completing of the work of some departments, the combining of others and the cutting down of salaries to the extent of $42,000.

The program of work to be undertaken this year, was outlined as the largest and most comprehensive in the history of the association, with particular emphasis on finance, taxes, marketing, transportation and soil fertility. Following a precedent set in 1921, it is planned to put $50,000 of the 1922 income aside as a reserve fund, it was stated.

In connection with the planning of the budget, George A. Fox, of Sycamore, was appointed as executive secretary of the Illinois Agricultural association to fill the vacancy left by the resignation on March 1 of Secretary D. O. Thompson, who is leaving to organize a farmer motion picture company. Dr. Fox is a farmer and banker of DeKalb County and has been treasurer of the association since its organization.

Howard Leonard, of Eureka, state president, will take charge of a new department to be known as the department of co-operative marketing.

This department will take up the work of the former grain and livestock departments, the principal work of which was finished when national co-operative commodity associations were organized with their aid to carry on the work on a commercial basis. The poultry and egg marketing investigations will also be carried on by the department of co-operative marketing.

The fruit and vegetable and dairy marketing departments will continue in the same form. Both of them are directly represented on committees working out national plans of co-operative marketing similar to the U. S. Grain Growers, Inc., in grain marketing and the National Live Stock Producers' association in the live stock field.

During 1922 more emphasis will be placed upon transportation than ever before in the history of the association. The scope of the phosphate and limestone work has also been enlarged.

MOON CHARACTERIZED AS INCONSISTENT PLANET.

ST. LOUIS, (By The A. P.)—The moon is too inconsistent a planet to govern the date of Easter, in the opinion of Rev. M. S. Brennan, astronomer priest of this city, who has expressed hope that the council of astronomers called by the late Pope Benedict XV for a meeting in Rome next April will decide to eliminate the moon as a means of determining the date of the paschal feast.

Father Brennan recently suggested that a certain date be fixed or a certain Sunday, and suggested that either April 8 or the second Sunday in April be designated the day, on which the churches celebrate Easter. The present method of fixing the first Sunday following the first full moon after the vernal equinox, Father Brennan points out, leaves a range of 34 days for the Easter feast, and by fixing a certain day or certain Sunday, he believed, much confusion could be avoided.

Christian churches are the only churches taxed in Japan.

FARMERS HARD HIT SAYS BABSON

Famous Statistician Tells of Conditions in the Middle West

Continuing his personal survey of business conditions throughout the country Roger W. Babson, economist, furnishes the following exclusive statement to the conditions in the farming sections of the middle west:

"There is no use disguising the fact that conditions are pretty bad out here. The expected fall rise in business was apparent in all sections of the country except in these western states bordered by the Mississippi on the east and the Rocky mountains on the west. Throughout 1920 the farmers tended to hold their crops pending higher prices but, as statistics clearly indicated would be the case, prices declined throughout the year. Hence farmers reached the end of the year with pressing obligations and no funds. All classes of farmers were hit but I find those depending primarily upon corn are the worse off. Of all the states in this belt, I find Iowa most depressed and Minnesota the best off."

"Those engaged in stock-raising or more properly speaking in the feeding of stock—have the greatest monetary loss. Many a farmer I have met who has been feeding his stock for months and cannot get for his fat cattle what he paid a year ago. Others have cattle which they purchased eighteen months or two years ago and these, of course, are in a much worse fix. The same applies to sheep and hogs. Hence the banks in the cattle and sheep sections are in a weak condition, although I believe 95 percent of them will come thru all right."

"I find a great interest in this section for heavy protective tariffs, especially on wool, hides and other products entering into industry. The farmers are panicky, grasping at straws here and there for temporary help. They are the real Bolsheviks today and are actually favoring some of the uneconomic doctrines that Russia has already tried and found to be useless. Only greater efficiency and wider markets will help the farmer in the long run. Higher tariffs tend only to reduce efficiency and narrow our markets. Besides, the farmer will never get a tariff on his raw materials without giving the manufacturer a tariff on manufactured products and the doubtless will increase the cost of living that no one will be better off."

"Generally speaking, the wheat growers of the northwest are not complaining like the corn and cotton growers. Minneapolis I find to be the most optimistic city of the western states. The banks of Minneapolis and St. Paul, seemed to be in good condition and the stores of these cities are doing a fair business. Perhaps it may be said that Minnesota has turned the corner, but this is not true of any other state in this belt. 1922 is destined to be a bad year for this section."

"This means that the western states will buy very little during 1922, even though they bought almost nothing during 1921. The purchasing power of the farmer has been cut from 50 percent to 75 percent. Moreover, his hope rests not in higher prices but in reducing his operating expenses. Manufacturers and merchants desiring to dispose of goods in these states during 1922 must feature 'squashing price reductions.' Farmers will not be attracted by the quality of the goods. Prices will be the only consideration. Labor saving devices and other necessities may be sold but very few planes, phonographs, or luxuries of any kind will be shipped into these states during the current year."

"Statistics have strongly indicated that even during average years very few farmers have made money operating their farms. I mean that if farmers were obliged to keep books the same as manufacturers and charge up wages for themselves and families and interest on their investment, most farms would show a loss on average years. The farmer has really made his money thru the natural increase in the value of his land. The farmer is technically a great speculator. He speculates not only in his products but in his real estate holdings. There are far more speculators in Nebraska than in New York."

Farmers complain about the watered stock of the industrial corporations of the east, but there is far more water in their farms than in the average industrial corporation of New England, New York or Pennsylvania. However, there won't be much speculating in farm lands during 1922. The tendency will be constantly downward. Farm land prices are bound to go thru a period of readjustment and the lands of these western states will suffer the most. The greatest decline will come in farms which are rented. The real farmer who both owns and operates has nothing to fear from a temporary decline in values. Like the seasoned manufacturers who have weathered many depressions, he is not expanding during the preceding periods of prosperity, the honest dirt farmer has nothing to fear."

"What is the hope for this section is the question which everybody asks. The answer is that old and familiar one 'diversified farming.' Once in a while I find a prosperous farmer even during this trip. Upon inquiry I learn that he almost always is a general all around farmer and does not rely upon any one or two crops. One farmer in particular, who seemed happy had raised a large amount of potatoes, while another was specializing in cabbage, cauliflower and other market garden products. The dairy farmers are also in a fairly good condition. Unlike the raiser of grains they have a constant income from week to week and can adjust their operating expenses to the price which they receive from their products."

"The most optimistic sign is the interest which farmers are showing in the co-operative movement. Recent legislation passed by congress permitting farmers to unite for purchasing and selling will—until abused—be very beneficial to this section. Of course, there is nothing wrong in combining whether it be by manufacturers, merchants, farmers or wage-workers provided the privilege is not abused. The difficulty with the present legislation is not that the farmers are being permitted to combine, but that the law does not give the same privilege to all interests with a heavy fine for its abuse."

"Naturally the cities in these western states are not showing up very well. Sioux City, Iowa, (72,000 population) is only 60 percent of normal. Wichita, Kansas, with the same population is 85 percent of normal. Duluth, Minn., (100,000 population), Davenport, Iowa, (57,000 population), Omaha, Neb., (100,000 population) and Peoria, Ill., (77,000 population) are running from 75 percent to 85 percent of normal. The best city is Minneapolis, Minn., 95 percent of normal, followed closely by St. Louis which is 90 percent of normal. Kansas City, Mo., and Omaha, Neb., are running about 85 percent."

"From these figures it is evident that it is the west which is causing the low average figures on the Babsonchart."

The index of the Babsonchart shows no change from last week. The recent improvement seems to be holding very well with general activity at 13 percent below normal. Increased building activity may be expected as the season progresses.

ARMY MAN SAYS WAR WAS WON BY CAVALRY

Bases Opinion on Observations of More Than Six Years Service in Armies of Other Nations.

WASHINGTON, (By The A. P.)—Cavalry won the war, at least so much of the world conflict as was fought out in Palestine—according to Lieut. Col. Edward Davis, U. S. Army, who has just returned to Washington to present to the general staff his observations on more than six years' service with the armies of other nations.

Before the entry of the United States in the world war, and afterwards, Col. Davis served with the forces of Great Britain, France, Russia, Italy, Serbia and Greece. Later he served as military attaché in Holland and at Berlin. According to Col. Davis, his most valuable military experience was with the British cavalry during the Jerusalem campaign and he stated he was surprised to find that so little was known in the United States regarding the facts of General Allenby's two remarkable campaigns in the Holy Land, each of which he characterized as "an exquisite example of the combined operations of all arms of the service under a master strategist and a great natural leader of men."

In both the Jerusalem and Damascus campaigns, Col. Davis said, the master stroke was delivered by the cavalry. He described several of the mounted charges made by Allenby's forces, and explained that the most striking results were attained by those swift and unexpected blows at infantry and artillery groups.

"After the British had reached what looked like a stalemate on the Gaza-Beersheba line," Col. Davis said, "it was decided to employ cavalry in a final effort to pierce the Turkish defense. The British strategists decided cavalry could operate best against one end of the line, and a mounted squadron was sent to 'bite off' an end of the entrenchments that had resisted every effort to capture. Within an hour the cavalry had effected contact with the Turks, and then began a process that might best be described as 'rolling up' that thin line that so long had resisted every effort at assault. The operation was a complete success, and the entire line was in British control within ten hours."

Used Against Artillery.

"The value of cavalry against heavy artillery was strikingly demonstrated at Huj, where the 60th division was engaged. The cavalry under Colonel Shea charged 12 cannon protected by machine gun nests, and in ten minutes had captured 1 of the big guns and cleaned out the nests. The success of that operation was repeated in the charge at El-Mughar one week later. There the cavalry charged to the top of the hill 125 feet high, with a 20 percent grade and leaping over a series of trenches captured three Krupp 77's and nearly a score of machine guns."

"Without water, without baggage of any sort, the cavalry made long hard marches and outflanked the enemy column again and again. Finally, on the plain of Armageddon, the last struggle took place. During the first stage of the battle the Turks fought well but were steadily forced back. Presently the Turkish line launched his cavalry which swooped northward and then eastward to Nazareth across the rear of the whole Turkish host. The German commander Liman Von Sanders, barely escaped from the net by precipitate flight, but what was left of the Turkish armies, more than 60,000 men and 400 guns fell into Allenby's hands. A month later Turkey capitulated."

ALL 43,000 ACRES TO HAVE HAWAIIAN PARK

Hilo Island of Hawaii, T. H., (By The A. P.)—An area of 43,000 acres of volcanic formation comprising land that was practically unknown until last year, even to inhabitants of the Hawaiian islands would be added to the Hawaii national park on this island, under the Senate bill pending in Congress, which gives the Secretary of the Interior authority to accept the tract which was set aside for park purposes by territorial authorities a year ago.

As constituted now the Hawaii National Park has three sections, the dormant volcano of Haleakala on the island of Maui and this island, the summit of the volcano Mauna Loa, with its greater active crater of Mokuawewea and the whole of the crater of Kilauea, said to be the largest continuously active volcano in the world, with much of the surrounding country.

PRICES FOR SUGAR CANE FALL IN SYDNEY, N. S. W.

Sydney, N. S. W.—By Mail.—The Colonial Sugar Co., whose activities have been the main stay of Fiji for some 40 years, has announced that the fall in sugar values in the world's markets has rendered it impossible for the concern to continue paying higher than pre-war rates for cane.

Sugar grown in Fiji has to compete with the staple grown in other tropical countries where cheaper labor is utilized, the wages in Fiji being more than double the scale elsewhere, the company stated. The Fiji-Vancouver Sugar Co., decided to close its mill and estates in Fiji while another large sugar company, with headquarters in Melbourne and estates in Fiji, probably will duplicate this action soon.

AMERICAN LEGION TO INITIATE MOVEMENT FOR 700,000 JOBS

Will Try to Get That Many Veterans of the World War Placed in Positions—Have Asked President, Governors and Mayors to Set Aside a Day for Concerted Effort

(By The Associated Press)
INDIANAPOLIS, Ind., March 4.—Employment of 700,000 veterans of the world war who are now idle and in need will be undertaken in a great joint national effort already initiated by the American Legion in cooperation with an impressive list of national business, civic, fraternal and welfare organizations, according to announcement today at the national headquarters of the Legion. Preliminary preparations for the campaign have been started under the direction of local units of the Legion and cooperating bodies. This includes a survey of conditions and suggestions for remedy in every locality. This work will be completed before March 20, which shall be known as American Legion Employment Day.

Hanford MacNider, national commander of the Legion has appealed to the president, state commanders have requested their governors, and local leaders have asked mayors of cities and towns to set aside that day to launch by concerted effort in every community in the nation this joint drive to give work to and relieve need among the unemployed who served their country in war.

On March 20 it is planned to hold meetings under the auspices of the joint local committees in every city and town in the United States, at which the business men and employers and representatives of every element in the community life will be confronted by a survey of situation in their town with suggestions for relief which fit the local conditions.

"Properly supported this concerted, localized national effort will result in the relief of 700,000 men in thirty days," declared Lemuel Bolles, national adjutant of the Legion, who supervised the organization of the effort. "We are dealing with methods which have been proven. The Legion has long been interested in the unemployed situation. Thru our own bureaus we have placed several hundred thousand men in jobs within the past six months. A recent concerted effort in St. Paul resulted in putting every deserving veteran to work in that city. The Louisiana department of the Legion reports not a resident veteran unemployed in the state."

Mr. Bolles announced that national heads of the following organizations had been urged to cooperate with the Legion, American Legion Auxiliary, United States Chamber of Commerce, Rotary, Kiwanis and Lions clubs, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Y. W. C. A., Community Service, Knights of Columbus, Elks and Jewish Welfare Board. Pastors of all churches will be asked to mention the movement in their sermons on Sunday, March 19th.

Legion officials assert the unemployment situation among veterans has never been worse since the end of the war.

PROMISSORY NOTE GROWS IN VALUE

BERKELEY, Cal.—(By The Associated Press)—An old promissory note, given by the commonwealth of Massachusetts to Samuel T. Mather in 1794 for $53.62 and "five per cent interest," compounded semi-annually, may bring between $20,000 and $40,000 to Mather's great-granddaughter, Mrs. Almira Gaylord Connor, a young kindergarten teacher of Berkeley.

While in the east last summer attending her mother's funeral, Mrs. Connor found the note unopened in an old family trunk which had been given her years ago for her dolls' clothes.

Mrs. Connor took the note to an attorney who advised her that payment could not be made without the passage by the Massachusetts legislature of a special act, for in 1821 the legislature passed a bill calling for payment of all such notes and providing that interest would not be paid after a reasonable time was given for presentation.

A bill has been introduced in the legislature. Mrs. Connor has been advised, calling for payment of the note, and she has been notified to be ready to go east soon to attend a hearing on the matter. It is thought that possibly the legislature will authorize payment as the note represents a moral debt, if not a legal one.

Mrs. Susie A. Hughes was given honorable mention for her poem, "Blue Earth and Minnesota," which appeared in an August issue.

The following poem has already appeared in the Chicago Evening Post, and also in the December issue of The Calcutta Review.

"NEATH THE MIDNIGHT SKY"

Softly I walk 'neath the midnight sky,
Earnestly casting my eyes on high;
Silently glowing, the stars look down,
Watching the river, the valley, the town.

Puzzled, I ponder on problems old,
Asking the stars for the secrets they hold;
Wisely the stars with their golden light
Flicker, but answer me not from their height.

Naught do they tell of their circuits free,
Naught of the worlds that my eyes would see;
Naught do they tell me of whence I came,
Naught of what follows my short-lived flame.

Yet how enraptured I wander alone,
Watching the stars after daylight has flown,
Stars that were there when the earth was made,
Candles that glimmer but never fade.

—WAYNE GARD.

PLAN TO MAKE VET CONVENTION BIG ONE

Gathering at Sterling in June—Will be Addressed by Senator McCormick and Congressman McKenzie.

STERLING, Ill., March 3.—With an extensive program arranged and many prominent men scheduled for addresses, plans are under way to make the third annual state encampment of the Veterans of Foreign Wars at Sterling, June 22, 23 and 24, one of the greatest gatherings of former service men in the history of the state.

Senator Medill McCormick, ranking member of the house committee on military affairs; Oscar E. Carlstrom, commander-in-chief of the United Spanish War veterans, and Gen. George Bell, jr., commander of the Sixth Army Corps area, have accepted invitations to address the veterans, while invitations have been sent to President Warren G. Harding, General John J. Pershing, and Robert G. Woodside, of Pittsburgh, Pa., commander-in-chief of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

A feature of the three-day gathering will be the dedication on June 23 by the Spanish War Veterans of a bronze tablet from the U. S. S. Maine and a captured Spanish cannon, taken by American troops at San Juan Hill.

Entertainment features include boxing matches, music by six bands, concerts by massed bands under the direction of Earl E. Holdridge, director of the Sterling Military Band, exercises by Sterling Lady Zouaves, and a parade on "Cottie Night" with James A. Wright of Chicago, Grand Seam Squirrel, in charge.

Every agency in Sterling is co-operating with the Veterans of Foreign Wars in arranging for the encampment, the Sterling association of commerce, representing the manufacturing, business and professional interests of the city, having taken charge of the general arrangements. An executive committee from the association, composed of Burt J. Sneed, M. D. John, and Major Harold Ward, is cooperating with the officers of Bert E. Brown, Post No. 326, V. F. W., who are: Fred G. Allai, commander; L. D. Morgenthau, adjutant; and Russell A. Burleigh, chairman of convention committee.

ASK CHICAGO CO-EDS NOT TO SMOKE IN DORM

Chicago.—By the A. P.—"Smoking among women was introduced by the so-called upper set and then imitated by others," said Dean Marion Talbot in introducing recently to residents of Green hall a girls dormitory at the University of Chicago, a request from President Harry Pratt Judson that there be no smoking in the dormitory. "Now," continued Miss Talbot, "those who introduced the practice are abandoning it because it has become common. Therefore I think it is time for the rest of us to do likewise. I would suggest that any persons addicted to tobacco that they cannot do without it seek quarters elsewhere."

"There has been no action by the student government board barring women smokers," a student residing in Green Hall said recently. "If there has been any smoking in the hall since President Judson's message was read with Dean Talbot's comment, I have heard none of it. At any rate, I am satisfied there is none on my floor."

CLEVELAND CHURCH
FUNCTIONS EVERY DAY
Cleveland.—The Lakewood Congregational church functions seven days a week as a club house and school.

The church was built six years ago. It is equipped with kitchen, gymnasium, sewing room and little homelike rooms where special groups can sit around the fireplace and discuss their community and religious problems.

While father is down in the bowling alley rolling a little sociable game with a neighbor, mother can attend a meeting in one of the upstairs rooms and Willie can be enjoying himself in the gym.

A radio room also keeps the boys interested, while one of the rooms is assigned to the Camp Fire Girls. Moving Pictures frequently are used in place of sermons on Sunday nights to drive home moral truths. The church has a back yard for tennis and basketball.

The annual budget of the church exceeds $25,000. It is said. One member of the congregation is said to donate all the coal used to heat the building.

The church is said to be typical of dozens of others functioning in Greater Cleveland.

Chicago, By the A. P.—The interstate and foreign trade department of the Association of Commerce here has been informed of an opportunity for developing business in Central Europe thru a sample fair to be held at Prague March 12-19 inclusive. In this connection it is announced by the chamber that a party of prominent Chicago business men are planning to visit Czechoslovakia in the near future under the guidance of John Sokol, secretary of the Czechoslovak Chamber of Commerce in Chicago. Chamber officials say the 15,000,000 inhabitants of Czechoslovakia require virtually every commodity produced in Chicago, and point out that the sample fair will be held at an industrial center of central Europe.

CHARGE MISUSE OF SOLDIERS MONEY

Claim is Made That Government Funds Are Not Used Exclusively for Their Care.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 3.—That money paid by the government for maintenance of veterans suffering from mental disorders is not expended entirely for their care, is charged by a committee of neuropsychiatric specialists of the United States Veterans' Bureau, in a report based on a recent conference. The committee also asserts that existing institutions caring for such patients are overcrowded. Twelve thousand beds are needed for neuropsychiatric patients, it estimates.

Maintaining that the vocational training of these men will fail without a system of federal hospitalization providing individual care and study, the committee recommends that such beneficiaries be cared for in special hospitals operated by the government. Half of them are now in contract hospitals. It estimates that about $10,000,000 is needed to provide 3,500 beds for such patients as soon as possible, pending the establishment of special hospitals.

The committee urges that legislation be sought to make available the funds required, and that in the disposal of any funds provided by the present congress the hospitalization of insane beneficiaries be given the right of way.

In outlining a hospital construction program the committee expresses strong disapproval of the continued use of Veterans' Hospital No. 76, at Maywood, Ill., for the care of neuropsychiatric patients. It also recommends that when a new institution is available in this district, Veterans' Hospital No. 57, at Knoxville, Ia., be relinquished.

The committee endorsed the present plan of special centers for the vocational training of neuropsychiatric cases and recommended a training center for the instruction of the personnel engaged in neuropsychiatric work.

GRANT RATE CUT ON FEEDING MOLASSES

CHICAGO, March 3.—A reduction in freight rates on carload lots of feeding molasses in barrels has been granted by railroads, the Illinois Agricultural association announced. This reduction will mean a slight saving to Illinois farmers, the announcement added.

The effective date of the reduction has not yet been announced. The U. S. Food Products Corporation, the American Farm Bureau Federation and the Illinois Agricultural Association placed a plea with the railroads several weeks ago for the reduction.

EGYPT ASKS ILLINOIS U. FOR SEED CORN

URBANA, Ill., March 3.—For the third time in as many years a cablegram has come to the University of Illinois from Cairo, Egypt, asking that the University select and send seed corn to that place.

The cablegram, just received, came from the Egyptian government's agricultural experiment station.

The first call three years ago was for five varieties. These were tried out under conditions that exist in Egypt and the following year the request was for three varieties. The present call was for two or the three varieties ordered last year. Both varieties asked are white corn—Silvermine, and Boone County White.

George Ruble, of Alexander; E. R. Hembrough, of Ashbury; Fred Moeller, of Orleans; Bert Way of Concord, and C. H. Gibbs of the program committee.

The committee decided to pay its share of H. T. Rainey's bill for representing the Farm Bureau before the Illinois State Commerce Commission, pro rata on a basis of farm bureau membership as compared to the total membership in Greene, Morgan and Scott counties. The amount will probably be about $68.

The memberships of Joseph Wagner, R. H. Culp, R. E. Lonerger, W. E. Morrow, C. L. Hawker, Gillet Mathers, and T. J. Seaver were cancelled owing to the fact that the men have either moved away or disposed of their farm interests in the county. There was a general discussion about producing corn acreage according to the recommendations of the Illinois Agricultural association but no general endorsement of the plan was made.

The matter of renting the office room to the Contractor's association for Monday nights was left to the farm advisor with power to act as he sees fit. Also the committee voted to purchase some folding tables for the display of farm products in the east room. The committee also instructed Mr. Kendall to arrange for the demonstration of a portable moving picture machine with the view to purchasing such an outfit. Bills for the month of February, amounting to $657.57 were ordered paid.

To Explain Marketing Plan.

Advisor Kendall was instructed to secure R. N. Clark, organizer for the United Grain Growers, Inc., to address a meeting of Morgan county farmers at his earliest convenience. A committee from the Breeders' Association consisting of M. Greenleaf, C. E. Davis and J. F. Moore, offered to sell the East Morgan street property on the farm bureau at cost. The matter was taken under advisement and the general consensus of opinion was that it would be a good buy provided it could be financed out of the farm bureau income with going into debt.

At yesterday's meeting Mr. Kendall was also authorized to have the reception room and private office of the farm bureau redecorated.

County Advisor George B. Kendall made a report of the work done by him during the month of February. He gave reports of seed day, landlord-tenant conference, get-together banquet, appointment of a program of work committee, produce exchange club work, near east relief and personal service to members. The statistical summary of the month's work showed 115 personal letters written; 5 circular letters written; 3,181 copies of circular letters sent out; 6 newspaper articles written; 19 farm visits made; 12 meetings held with total attendance of 659; 142 office consultations held.

The program for next month will include the development of a program of work, work on the produce exchange, club work, community meetings, demonstrations and farm visits.

Breeders Elect Officers. At a meeting of the Poland China Breeder's association, held yesterday afternoon at the farm bureau office the following officers were elected:

President—Bert Way, of Concord.

Vice-president—J. W. Wilson, Secretary and Treasurer—W. H. Crain, of Woodson.

The committee in charge of the farm produce exchange project met yesterday afternoon at the farm bureau office. Mrs. W. G. Wolf, Mrs. Harry Rice, and Mrs. C. R. Bibson were the ladies present. It was decided to start the produce marketing exchange with one open market to be held on a certain day in the week. It was also decided to look for someone to tend to the shipping of produce that people do not care to place on the open market. It is probable that the first market day will be held in about two weeks. It will be held at the farm bureau office or at someplace arranged by the bureau.

RED CROSS AFFAIRS WILL BE CONSIDERED

Miss Grace Carter to Represent Morgan County Chapter at Des Moines Conference.

A conference of Chapter delegates of the Central Division of the American Red Cross will be held in Des Moines, Iowa, March 7th and 8th. Miss Grace Carter, chairman of the Morgan County Red Cross Chapter will attend the meeting as delegates from this county. The conference will be held at the Hotel Fort Des Moines and a Red Cross Pageant will be presented at the Coliseum during the week that the conference is in session.

People from all over the county prominent in National Red Cross work will make addresses before the delegates. Among the departments of Red Cross work to be represented at the conference will be the publicity section, the nursing section, Junior Red Cross and post war activities. Child welfare work, community life in its different phases and work among the ex-service men will be some of the subjects to be discussed. Miss Carter will make an address on the second day of the conference on the subject, "The Value of County Organization and how it may be accomplished." Miss Carter is the chairman of the Red Cross Nursing Activities Committee in this county and is well acquainted with the work of this committee and its success in Morgan county.

AGAIN, THE ROBINS

At any time now we may expect robins from the south. The papers for some time have been reporting the first robin. These first robins seen during the winter, contrary to general belief, are not first records of robin migration. They are only reports of stray robins that have remained thru-out the winter in some sheltered place and are only seen when in search of food or are birds which have remained farther north and been driven south by severe weather. Sometimes such birds are crippled which may account for their not making the usual journey southward. Readers of Chicago papers see reports of the first robin long before the migration of robins in this section begins. Of course the birds seen during the winter in or near Chicago are those which have remained in the north all winter.

An abundant supply of palatable food often entices migratory birds to remain with us long past their usual fall migration or even all winter.

A Jacksonville observer who maintains feeding stations for birds the year round has seen robins in his yard every month of this winter. He saw a number of them in December, but only one at a time since then. These robins which remain north in the winter seem wilder than those which come up from the south with warmer weather. The winter robins frequent the tops of the trees, fly rapidly and are very restless and their infrequent calls are harsh and hurried. Not so with the robins which come up from the south for they are quite tame, are upon the ground much of the time, their calls are musical and, too, they sing cheerily as soon as they arrive, if the weather is pleasant.

Robins are not the only migrants which this observer has had this winter. Late in the fall two crested bronze grackles or blackbirds were seen feeding at his place. These two birds were so badly winged that neither could fly more than a few feet. Every day they were observed feeding and soon others came with them until at one time thirteen of the blackbirds were counted. These birds have been here all winter. Several flickers have also been around during the winter.

Bird lovers may attract the early robins by placing apples on the ground for them as soon as the first one appears. The apples must be sliced in thin slices. Apple parings will answer and partially decayed apples are entirely acceptable. Robins feed on fruit and soft insects. When they first come they must have fruit, because it is too early for the appearance of the soft insects which are not available until much warmer weather comes. Usually there are wild fruits enough for the first robins, but there was an unusual scarcity of fruits of all kinds last year, wild as well as cultivated, and the first robins soon to come will appreciate apples more than ever, especially when the ground may be covered with snow.

LETTER FROM J. M. SUMMERS

J. M. Summers, who is now spending a few months at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Newton Shelton one mile northeast of Nilwood, has written the following letter to the Journal readers:

Nilwood, March 2 1922.

Dear Journal Readers:—

As I have taken up my abode for a while in this community, I will write a brief description of the village, which some may find of interest. Nilwood is situated four miles south of Girard on the main line of the C. & A. railroad, and is also on the interurban and the Springfield-Alton road.

The village has a population of about 300. There are four stores all doing good business, and one confectionery store where one can buy ice cream and all sorts of cold drinks.

There is a large elevator which handles much grain, one barber shop with a capable man in charge and two garages which are always busy. There are two churches, a Methodist and a Baptist, and a very good school.

The coal mines are all shut down at present in this part of the mining district.

Some News Notes.

The Woman's Missionary Society of the Baptist church met in all day session recently at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Shields of Girard. Those present were Mrs. Harry Wallis, Mrs. Newton Shelton, Mrs. Louis Mallen, Mrs. Henry Davis, Mrs. C. Rule, Mrs. Ben Corder, Mrs. Cleveland Corder.

Mrs. John Braden, who has been critically ill for some weeks, is now showing some improvement.

What Fordson Owners Say

The man who can Talk With Authority is the man who has Used the FORDSON on his farm

H. M. Berryman, Franklin.

The Fordson is the handiest and cheapest tractor to operate. You can plow anywhere that you could use four horses. It is more economical. Working down wheat ground, I pulled a 16 disc with a 10 foot harrow behind, and would run a day and half on 13 gallons of Kerosene.

On the 24th of December I used my tractor to break down weeds on 20 acres of wheat stubble. The weeds were covered with ice and broke all to pieces. I hitched a long pole behind the tractor, and was only 3 1/2 hours breaking the 20 acres. I first intended to use horses but found they would walk in the weeds as they were high, and the ice frozen on them hurt the horses' legs. So I had to try the tractor and found the Fordson O. K. for the job.

John Brown, Alexander.

I think the Fordson is about as good a light tractor as built for the farm.

Harold Cockin, Alexander.

From what experience I had with this tractor and other makes, and the running condition our tractor was in when we put it away, and its handiness around jobs, must say I would buy another Fordson before I would buy any other. Will say they are the handiest and simplest tractor, with which I have had any experience.

FARM BUREAU NOTES

Diseased Seed Corn.—A great deal of the corn shown at the junior corn show bore evidence of rot. A careful culling by external characteristics alone resulted in discarding three-fourths of the ears handled. Shredded or discolored shanks or discolored pith are very suspicious. A germination test will reveal that this type of corn will not produce strong seedlings.

More Club Members.—Elwill and Washington Hagen of Arnold have enrolled for the corn club and Martha and Helen Kitter for the sow and litter club. If any boy or girl readers wish to join where to procure a suitable animal, we shall be glad to help locate something satisfactory amongst our breeders.

Certified Seed Potatoes.—A regular system of seed certification is carried on in many potato growing regions. In Minnesota certified seed must have received two inspections in the field, diseased plants pulled out, and then a third inspection in the bin. Such seed in the northern regions out yields common seed stock. We should like to see our farmers try certified Early Ohio planted very early. I would recommend early planting even if danger of freezing is not past.

Attended State Farmer's Institute.—Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Hem-brough of the Asbury neighborhood attended the State Farmers' Institute at Monmouth, last week. They report a pleasant and profitable session.

NOTED SOPRANO TO APPEAR AT I. W. C.

Residents of Jacksonville will be interested to know of the recital to be given by Madame Cle-mence de Vere Sapio, soprano, on April 21st at Illinois Woman's college. Madame Sapio is an artist of international fame, whose art embraces opera, oratorio and concert. Besides the activities of a large vocal studio in New York City, Madame Sapio is first vice president of the National opera club of America, whose work is the furthering of opera throughout the country.

The career of this artist has included many engagements of unusual interest. For instance, she was the soloist at the only concert conducted by Tchaikovsky in America. For the inauguration of Symphony hall, Boston, the artist made a trip across the Atlantic for the concert, returning immediately to England to fill another engagement on the night of her arrival.

It is of interest to note that in the same hall her daughter, Olga Sapio, now member of the I. W. C. piano department, appeared as assisting artist at Madame Emma Calve's recital on Christmas day, 1921. Before her departure for Europe, Madame Sapio sang several seasons at the Metropolitan opera house, New York, interpreting seventeen principal roles. The tours of the singer in the United States, include a visit to the Pacific Coast in 1918.

The program on April 21st will consist of numbers in French, Italian and English.

PARAMOUNT'S 10th ANNIVERSARY

will be celebrated every day of March in every town of the U. S.

Every day brings renewed gratitude for motion pictures.

You know by instinct that you were not made for only the dull routine of workaday life. You deserve a life spiced by adventure and romance.

And Paramount knows it! Paramount knew it in 1912 when it made the first feature picture—and Paramount has made the vast majority of the best feature pictures every year since!

The Name Paramount Stands for Whatever is Best in Motion Pictures

The history of Paramount is the history of motion pictures—all the way from the day when Adolph Zukor started the world by starring "the divine Sarah Bernhardt" in "Queen Elizabeth," and Jesse L. Lasky and Cecil B. De Mille made "The Squaw Man"—up to such successes as today as Cecil B. De Mille's "Fool's Paradise," Gloria Swanson in "Her Husband's Trademark," and Wallace Reid in "The World's Champion."

That's why this tenth birthday is worth celebrating!

Enjoy Paramount's Birthday at Your Theatre

The Gulbransen Inspires Better Singing of Better Music

Young folks' voices develop quickly with a little study and practice. Singing opens an easy road to the appreciation of good music—far easier and more en- joyable than any instrumental study.

Who shall play for them to sing? You answer that question the moment you get a GULBRAN- SEN Player Piano. Anyone can learn to play it well. And what music? Hundreds of good songs are ready in player-rolls; words on the roll; no sheet music to buy.

Your first week with a Gulbran- sen, you can learn to play ac- ceptably the kind of music you would stumble over after five years of hand practicing. You can prove this in ten minutes at any Gulbransen dealer's store. Please do it. Find out what the Gul- bransen will do for you and yours.

The Most Beautiful Car in America

WHEN you buy a Sedan you undoubtedly expect to use it in every variety of city and country driving. You want a car that sweeps you over country roads with resistless power. You want a car that "takes the grade" without faltering. And surely you want a car so alert that you can command your own position in traffic.

In the Paige New Series 6-44 Sedan you will find a 5-passenger model that meets these requirements perfectly. There is a reservoir of 50 horse power to tap. You can roll along at 3 miles an hour, then touch the accel- erator and in 9 seconds you can mount to 25.

In design, finish and fittings this model has that air of distinction that belongs to the possessions of well bred people. Yet with all its beauty and exceptional mechan- ical merits, the Paige 6-44 Sedan can now be bought for $2245.

BEARS RAIDED THE BOARD OF TRADE

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, March 4.—Bears raided the Board of Trade grain pits today and a hectic two and a half hours of trading resulted. The entire list lost ground, wheat finishing with net losses of 3½ in May 24 in July and 1½ in September corn 21 to 3½ net lower; oats 2½ to 3 off and provision from 15 to 27½ points under Friday's finish.
Easier prices at Liverpool and weakness in corn started wheat on the downgrade from the opening. Heavy selling by houses with New York connections ran the market into stoploss orders and soon prices showed drops of 2½ to 4½, with May leading. The run on May was helped by a local concern which sold that option and bought July, the result being a narrowing of the spread between the months. Later there was a rally on reports of seaboard sales for export and that Japan had taken 250,000 bushels of hard winter and 150,000 bushels of manitoba overnight. But in the last fifteen minutes selling by put traders who bought on the early decline in anticipation of a late rally caused a sharp setback.

Corn was weak under the same kind of selling as wheat but when inside figures reached that the 1
under Friday's high, seaboard houses and shorts bought freely and the finish was on a good rally.
Oats resisted the pressure from winter and 150,000 bushels of and there was less liquidation in that grain.
Provisions started off with a new season mark in lard but broke sharply when grain declined. The corn rally was short.

BUT LITTLE LIQUOR GLASSWARE IS MADE

Volstead Act Makes Demand Fall to Almost Nothing—Few Wine Glasses and Sets of Goblets.

CHICAGO, Ill.—One million feet of floor space covered with shimmering glassware—tumblers, goblets and glasses—and hardly a container among them for anything stronger than one-half of one percent.

This was the Volstead-inspired situation revealed at the annual glass, pottery and house furnishings exhibition which has just closed here. Three hundred manufacturers of glassware were represented with exhibits showing a variety of articles in glass for home uses, but the dainty liqueur containers that formed a glittering part of previous showings were missing.

As allied arms drove Germans out of France, so the eighteenth amendment, aimed solely at intoxicants, sideswiped an important branch of the glass industry, forcing it into other lines or out of business.

Exhibitors of barroom supplies, an industry of considerable dimensions four years ago, were conspicuously missing. Here and there, however, reposing on back shelves where they were hardly noticeable, were occasional showings of wine glasses, the last guard of the vanishing army of intoxicant containers.

Manufacturers' representatives at the exhibit showed slight interest at the mention of such glassware as depends upon liquors for its usefulness. Quite unanimously they declared that the demand is insignificant. A few wine glasses, an occasional set of goblets are all that are being sold. Tankards have disappeared completely.

Prohibition has not affected the prosperity of the glass industry, however, despite the deep inroads it cut, exhibitors declared. Manufacturers who formerly supplied glassware essential to liquor consumption have turned their attention to making other tableware which course is proving fully as remunerative, they said.

Y. M. C. A. NEWS.

A site has been bought for the $200,000 Association building at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

Columbus, Ohio, has begun its $1,300,000 plant. The building will contain 2,068,500 cubic feet. The walls are being "poured."

Before breakfast time the Hi-Y boys of Davenport, Ia., meet rain or shine for study and 24 out of 30 get there rain or shine at 7:30.

With nearly every boy reached in Charlottesville's Hi-Y clean speech effort, many girls also signed up making the boys' pledges doubly binding.

A bequest of $200,000 was left the St. Louis Association by George W. Brown, president of the association for many years. Mr. Brown had thoroughly canvassed the needs of the city and provided this sum to erect a central downtown building. Mr. Brown also bequeathed $10,000 to the international committee.

A juvenile judge in making an appeal for an association building at Virginia, Minn., said, "A certain class of youngsters who formerly gave the courts much trouble have largely disappeared in the last few months since a boys' work program has been under way. The necessity of a place where boys can go for clean wholesome fun is apparent, and there is no organization better qualified to supply the place than the 'Y. M. C. A.'"

A $100,000 property in Chicago was bequeathed the association by Hobart W. Williams, and strangely Mr. Williams had never been known to express interest or knowledge of the Chicago association work. The gift was in memory of his parents.

Jacksonville, Ill., reports eight city churches and eight county churches holding "Father and Son" events with an attendance of more than 1200 fathers and sons. Several churches observed a Sunday church program as well as a banquet meeting and program.
